

Solstice Community Arts Workshop Sponsorships

"Adopt an Artist" Sponsorships $2500 (7 available)

This sponsorship pays the salary of one of the Solstice Artists in Residence. These artists create floats, masks, costumes, giant puppets and banners for the Parade. They also work with community members in the creation of the ensembles. Solstice chooses the artist in residence as they need to have a specific knowledge of three dimensional art.

Recognition for "Artist-in-Residence" includes:

- Extensive press exposure including print, radio and television.
- Print exposure on 500 posters displayed by local merchants.
- Logo placement on the Staff Page of the Solstice Website with links to your site
- Banner placement at the Workshop.
- Fee waiver for 10 people ($450 value) to participate in Workshop

Costume & Mask Making Department Sponsorships

Limited number available ranging from $1,000 to $6,000

Recognition for Costume includes:

- Extensive press exposure including print, radio and television.
- Print exposure on 500 posters displayed by local merchants.
- Logo placement on the Staff Page of the Solstice Website with links to your site
- Banner placement at the Workshop.

Jethro Davis Memorial "Junior Artist" Scholarships $500

Teenagers 14-20 years of age are selected and for this special artistic mentor program which enables them to work directly with Solstice artists learning the arts of celebration. Students receive between $100 to $500 depending on their level of participation in the making and cleaning up after the parade.

Recognition for "Jethro Davis Memorial Jr. Artist" includes:

- Logo placement on the Staff Page of the Solstice website with links to your website
- Signage in Workshop

VADA Scholarships

$500- $2000

The Visual Arts and Design Academy of Santa Barbara High School students are invited to participate in the Solstice Community Arts Workshop. This helps the junior student fulfill internship requirements and other student fulfill their volunteer hours. One of our former VADA/Jr. Artists was admitted to college on the strength of her work produced at Solstice. This pays for workshop registration for students and materials.
